OUTDOOR ADVENTURE

HIKES

*Please note that for every additional 13 guests, a $500 transportation fee will be applied to accommodate van rentals. If over 25 people, special use permitting is required.

JEWEL OF THE CREEK BEGINNER HIKE

Experience the healing powers of nature on this gentle 2 mile loop. This incredibly unique part of the Sonoran Desert will have you in awe as you explore contrasting ecosystems. This is a great hike for someone who just wants to slow down and enjoy the beauty of the great outdoors. Throughout this hike, you will take in views of giant saguaros and huge deciduous trees like the Arizona Ash tree. You might even get lucky enough to explore this hike when Cave Creek is running through it.

Length	3 hours
Cost	$75 per person

QUARTZ INTERMEDIATE HIKE

The Quartz Hike is an intermediate 3.5 mile loop at Cave Creek Regional Park. It goes through the lush Sonoran Desert over rolling hills taking you up hillsides with great views of the surrounding area. You will see all of the classic Sonoran Desert plants like the saguaro, prickly pear, teddy bear and buckhorn cholla, palo verde and mesquite trees, jojoba, and many more. You might see some mule deer and hear a variety of different birds. Its namesake comes from a giant quartz monolith that you can't miss on the side of the trail. Tiny pieces of quartz coat sections of the trail. It's not a completely flat hike but also doesn't have any major sections of elevation gain making it a great option for the casual, intermediate hiker looking for a classic desert hike.

Length	3 hours
Cost	$75 per person

TOM'S THUMB ADVANCED HIKE

The Tom's Thumb Hike is an Advanced 4.0 mile out and back trail in the McDowell Sonoran Preserve. Exploring through the lush Sonoran Desert and giant Granite Rock Formations you will end with beautiful views of the southern McDowell Mountains and even the downtown skyscrapers of Phoenix. The Tom's Thumb hike is one of the valley's most popular hikes, you will experience some tough switchbacks and elevation gain but will be rewarded with unbelievable desert views. Only for experienced hikers!

Length	4 hours
Cost	$75 per person

DESERT BATHING: A NATURE IMMERSION EXPERIENCE

Have you ever tried to put words to that peaceful feeling you get when in nature? Experience the Japanese practice of shinrin-yoku, or forest bathing, adapted for the Sonoran Desert. Bridge the gap between yourself and the natural world by connecting with nature through your senses on this 2-mile nature walk on the Jewel of the Creek trail.
